Speaker, Leadership Expert, Strategist

Leading is Easy... Until it isn't!

-- Successful leadership in challenging times

Recession... Economy... Stimulus... Bail-out...

This world is going crazy. Someone, then, must stay sane in this all-gone-mad world we live in today. My vote is for Leaders to fill that "sanity vacuum."

Let Kevin entertain and engage your audience while sneakily educating them on becoming (or remaining) successful leaders during these crazy times we're in.

Now is not the time for leaders to "hunker down," "weather the storm," "stay the course," or any other hokey euphemism for inaction.

Not now. Especially not now.

We need leaders to lead.

This lively, interactive session, laced with anecdotes and personal stories, presents topics so timely for today, and provides your audience with practical, tangible points, such as:

- The credibility test.
- See and be seen.
- Remember, you were young once.
- Want cheese with that whine?
- Sit down, shut up, and color!

Entertaining, informative, and relevant. Three keys that make great reasons to invite Kevin to present his session, Leading is Easy... *Until it isn't! -- Successful leadership in challenging times!
